A NATIONAL TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

The Presidents of the State Teachers' Associations of New York, Massachusetts, Missouri, New Hampshire, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Vermont, Iowa and Wisconsin, have issued a circular in which they say, "believing that what has been done for States by State Associations may be done for the whole country by a National Association," they invite their fellow teachers throughout the United States to assemble in Philadelphia, on the 28th of August next, for the purpose of organizing a National Teachers' Association. It is hoped that all parts of the Union will be well represented.

RATHER A STRONG PIE STORY

On the 11th of February last, Mr. Joseph Gelserson, of Haverhill, while killing his hog, missed a sprightly boar, and after considerable search, gave him up for lost, supposing that he had fallen in the river and drowned. On the 12th day of May, however, three months after the porker was missing, he was found in an old cellar, a short distance from the house, where it was evident he had fallen in, and could not get out himself. There was nothing else in the cellar except a little dry cedar which he had gnawed, but the animal was nevertheless alive—although run down from a fine fast of 200 lbs to a skeleton no thicker than it took two of the men to look at him. Undoubtedly they let the animal eat so much as once that it killed him. We make Wm. G. express responsible for this story, which seems a pretty steep one. It is not incredible, however, for it is well known that bears and other hibernating animals live through the winter by the absorption of their own fat, and it is said the hump of the camel furnishes a supply of nutriment for his system in cases of extremity.

A BIG CALF

Mr. Cyrus Wheeler, of Waterville, has a yearling calf, which on the first anniversary of his birth weighed 1122 pounds. He offers $500 for a better calf.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

HOUSEHOLD EDITION OF THE WATERLEY NOVELS. Boston: Ticknor & Fields, 1857.

Two more volumes of this unrivaled edition of Mr. Walter Scott's novels are received—they embrace the historical romance of "Rob Roy," which we consider one of the best of the Waterley series. Volume 1 contains an exquisite portrait of "The Vernon," from a painting engraved by H. W. Smith. In the second volume we have Rob Roy's leaving at Loch Lomond.

D. Bugbee & Co. are the Bangor agents for the Household edition.

THE DIARY OF AN HUSBAND

By Mrs. Jameson. Boston: Ticknor & Fields, 1857.

A beautiful, pocket edition in blue and gold. It is a reprint from the latest London edition of a Diary of travels on the Continent, in which the authoress relates her wanderings in the beautiful scenes of Europe—the memorable scenes made famous for literary pilgrims by the pen of the great dramatist—and the scenes hallowed by the birth or residence of the divine poets and painters, and sculptors of old. Mrs. Jameson touches all with a glowing pencil.

The book is for sale by Bugbee & Co.

THE HAZARD OF GREYHOUND

An Autobiography by Mrs. Ann S. Stephens. New York: Edward Stephens, 1857.

Mrs. Stephens's novels have been very popular with American readers—possessing, as they do, brilliancy of conception, strength and beauty of description, and an engrossing and well sustained interest. The present work we judge no, to be inferior to its predecessors from the same pen.

It is for sale by Bugbee & Co.

SCOTCH DAYS AT RICHMOND

By an Old Boy. Boston: Ticknor & Fields, 1857.

This book is illustrative of the life of the English school boy, and was written by an Englishman. The incidents are vividly sketched in a style which must go to the heart of every school boy who remembers school days. The book is written in the narrative form, embracing the adventures of one Tom Brown.

THE LIFE OF GEORGE WASHINGTON

By Washington Irving. 10 Vols. New York: G. P. Putnam & Co., 1857.

This volume completes Mr. Irving's work, and will probably be the last work of this venerable author, who is endeared alike to fame and to the hearts of his countrymen. In the volume now completed the author has narrated succinctly, and yet clearly, comprehensively and gracefully, the events in Washington's career from his childhood, through his early surviving expeditions, his campaigns in the old French war, his arduous trials as Commander in Chief in the Revolutionary War, his smp a life of retirement subsequent to the Peace, and finally his elevation to the first Presidency of the greatest Republic or nation which the world ever saw. With his magnanimous the author leaves him, although it is intended that should Mr. Irving's health and spirits be still continued at an age which is now much beyond the usual term of literary labor, he may, in another volume, give the Presidential career, and the closing scenes in the life of Washington.

The work is for sale by E. F. Duren.

SERMONS PREACHED AT TRINITY CHURCH, BRISTOL

By the Rev. Frederick W. Robertson, M. A. Boston: Ticknor & Fields, 1857.

This volume is a reprint from the third London edition of these eloquent and deeply religious sermons. They were not published during the life time of the author—his own diffidence and meekness of character preventing a proper appreciation of them on his part. His surviving brother edited the volume, and in closing his preface to the latest edition repeats his belief that "these evidences of a rare and uncommon mind and heart must have a powerful influence for good on the Religious Life of the Country."

MAINE NEWS.

We learn that Rev. James Fox of Mass.

is engaged to preach for the Bangor Society of the New Jerusalem, during the summer, at Concord Hall, in the Central Market building, to commence to-morrow. Services to be held Sabbath mornings and evenings, at the usual hours. Seats free.

We understand that the Rev. Dr. Sheldon of Bath, (and formerly President of Waterville College) will preach to-morrow at the Union St. Cong. Church.

It is announced that the Bangor House will be re-opened to the public on Tuesday next.

Rev. G. J. Newton, of Bangor, has lately accepted an invitation to labor with the Baptist church in Plainfield, Mass.

R. v. I. J. Swift, late of Vassboro', has accepted a call to settle with the Baptist church in East Brunswick.

ENTERTAINMENT VARIED

The columns of the Whig, for long, hearing upon Kansas, are now devoted to essays upon the Jackson Journal.

Yes, it is some time since we have paid any attention to our neighbor of the Journal, and we think it no more than right to give him our turn during the fall in politics.

THE POLAND MURDER ON CANVAS

The tragedy has been fixed up for exhibition by Mr. Herriman, and the Lewistown Journal says the thing is meeting with considerable success. We are disposed to think that no good can result from the familiarity with the revolting details of crime which such exhibitions naturally create in the minds of those who witness them.

FOURTH OF JULY AT PORTLAND

is to be celebrated by a procession of all the school children, in which the fire department and others have been invited to join as an escort. Four bands of music have been engaged to play during the day and evening, prizes to the value of $300 are to be offered to competitors in a boat race or regatta, not limited to the boats of that city, and the city government has appropriated $2500 to cover the expenses of the whole celebration.

PORTLAND, Saco & PORTSMOUTH RAILROAD

The annual meeting of this corporation was held at North Berwick, Me., on Monday, the 2nd inst. The Directors stated the receipts at $253,717.39, and the expenditures $142,808.13. Net income, $120,909.26, from which two equal annual dividends of three per cent. were paid. The surplus fund, May 31, 1857, amounted to $39,684.06.

Mr. Nicholas Harris, of New Sharon, has a cow which has produced five calves within the last thirteen months.

On the 26th of March, 1856, she had the first calf, which weighed at birth, two of them 60 lbs. each, and the third 48 lbs. At a year old the average weight of the three was 42 lbs. each. On the 20th of April, 1857, the same cow had two bull calves, weighing one 98 lbs. and the other 75 lbs. Total weight of the five calves, 321 lbs.

LINE ROCK BANK ROBBERY

The person arrested in Portland, on suspicion of sharing in the attempt to rob the Line Rock Bank, has been discharged, and no suspicions now rest against him. No clue to the actual perpetrators of the crime has yet been obtained. The Gazette says:

"A reward of $200 has been offered, by the officers of the Bank, for the apprehension of the criminals, or for evidence that will lead to their conviction, and at the session of the City Council on Monday evening, the Mayor and Aldermen, authorized the City Clerk to offer a like reward."

SALE OF THE HALLWELL HOUSE

We understand that the Hallwell House was purchased on Monday last by Benj. Hodges, for the sum of $3000, about one-ninth of its original cost.—New York.

DR. R. B. BUTLER, of Waterville, sailed for Europe week before last.

His object is to improve in his profession by spending a few months in some of the best medical institutions of Europe. He will return early in the coming winter.

A lady of Yarmouth recently laid her washing out upon the grass.

Upon taking it in, she found a pair of new shoes, for the despoiler of which she could not account. A searching for her belonging to the place, after several days sickness died, a post mortem examination was made, and the articles found in her stomach, partially masticated, but dry and wadded together.

Mr. Ezekiel Brown, of Carroll, raised, the past season, on two acres of burnt land, sowed, and reaped and threshed separately, eighty five bushels of good, clear wheat—forty five on one acre, and forty on the other.

The Census Advertiser is in error in stating that there is not a vessel of any description on the stocks in any yard between Calais and Eastport.

A vessel of 40 tons burthen is being built at Little River, Penn., and will be launched about the 1st of July.

A ship of about 300 tons is nearly ready to launch from C. S. Weston's yard and a brig is being built in Mr. W. H. Hall's yard—Eastport Sentinel.

ACCIDENT. ANNA T. FOND of Sanguerville, while returning home from the funeral of W. G. Clark, Esq., last week, in a wagon, his horse took fright from some obstacle, reared, and broke the fender of the wagon, throwing Mr. Fond on the ground, breaking one of his legs, and otherwise mauling him very severely. (Over Observer)

U. S. SURVEY OF MAINE COAST.—The Maine Union learns that a party, under charge of Assistant C. O. Boutelle, has commenced to build a road, or what may be more properly termed "Base of verification," on Ryeing Plains, in the northern part of Columbia. It is to be made level five and a half miles in length and eleven feet wide. Some forty men will be employed, the terms of wages and board sufficient to expedite the work. It is to be completed by the first of August, when Prof. Baché, Superintendent of the Coast Survey, will occupy the ground for four or five weeks. He, with his corps of Engineers, will camp on the Plains.

FIRE COMPANIES IN LEWISTON

At the town meeting held on Friday last week, it was voted to pay the fire companies $250 each, so as to pay each company full number not less than $250 each, and the same of Friday will have a tendency to increase rather than diminish the number. The companies are in excellent spirits, and will be found ready to defend the property which may be entrusted to them.

CO. A. CANNINGS, who conditionally accepted the Governorship of Utah, arrived in Washington on the 3d inst., from St. Louis and had a conference with the President. Col. OFFERING OF THE SLAVE TRADE.—Collector Hatch of New Orleans, has had the schooner Louis Molano from that port, taken in charge on suspicion of being fitted out for the slave trade. The New Orleans Advertiser says that the schooner was taken in charge on suspicion of being fitted out for the slave trade. The schooner was taken in charge on suspicion of being fitted out for the slave trade.

Collector for the purpose of a narrow minded and unphilosophical law of the Federal Congress. This sentiment is sympathized with by all the leading Democratic journals of the South, and as they make the platform for the party we may expect to see incorporated as a plank in the next, "No more interference with the Slave Trade"—Louisville Courier.

That so, and judging the future by the past and present, you will find every hunchman editor in the Union going for it, and swearing that he had always been in favor of it.

Our contemporaries, having exhausted the big egg business, are now trying for the big egg story about the increase of live mutton. The Waterville Mail has the following, which we believe is the latest and largest:

"Mr. Joseph Boulton of Foxcroft, recently sold to Mr. L. E. Gatchell, of Vassboro', twenty-six lambs, the increase of his flock of thirteen sheep—the flock having 300 per cent, and lost one lamb in the bargain of 300 per cent, which beats anything yet in the hold."

A BEN REGULATOR.—Mr. Editor

At this time of year, when birds are so troublesome to gardeners, a good plan to use a small scraggy bush to a string, about a yard long, and let one end of the string be tied loosely around one leg of the feathered biped. This will prevent them from flying over the coop, or through the garden fence. It cannot be averred that the pens admire the expedient, but those who have had choice plants destroyed by their busy feet, pronounce it no more than fair, while a few encounters on their part with the obstacles of bushes and fences, teach them the wisdom of avoiding such "enchanting alliances."

FIRST AVENUE HOTEL.—In an article on the more notable buildings which are going up in New York, and in which $600,000 are to be invested, the Journal of Commerce gives the following account of a new hotel on the Fifth Avenue.

A still more noble building is the mammoth hotel recently commenced on Fifth Avenue, and extending from 23d to 24th street, (formerly known as the Hippodrome property) it is Amos R. Loe. It is anticipated that this edifice, as a hotel, will be nowhere surpassed in this country. On Fifth Avenue it will have a white marble front, 300 feet long, and a depth on the side street of 224 feet—the whole six stories in height. It will be in the Italian style of architecture, with projecting porticoes to the three main entrances—spacious vaulted dining rooms and kitchens on the second floor, and of apartments sufficient to accommodate 1000 persons. Both rooms and all the apartments of a hotel of the highest class. The building will be heated by steam in every part. The cost will be in the neighborhood of $500,000, including ground and furniture, about $1,000,000. It is expected that the building will be finished in the fall of 1858.

The Fifth Avenue hotel will form a new and distinguished feature will be the great width of the corridors, intersecting the building in every part. None will be less than ten feet, and that to the dining room will be twenty eight.

SUGAR ONCE MORE.—Is there a scarcity?

Let the following figures, answer. On June 1st, 1854, there were 29,094 hhds. and 6,394 boxes of sugar, in the New York market, same date, 1856, 30,973 hhds., 7,057 boxes, and same date, 1857, 59,028 hhds., 13,113 boxes, and 12,500 boxes of longspice.

The same excess of the stock of molasses in New York market may be noted. On the 1st of June, 1857, there were 12,351 hhds., 10,419 bbls. of molasses against 4,250 hhds. and 1,735 bbls. on the same date last year.

It is not evident that speculation, and not scarcity, keep up the price of this necessary of life.—New York Journal.

The sugar speculators in New York have got all they can stagger under. They are wealthy, and their back bone is fast in iron, or it would have broken long ago. It takes nerve, as well as capital, to carry through one of these gigantic games, but these sugar men seem determined to play the game out. There is an accumulation of stock in New York, very large receipts from the West Indies, very favorable news from the crop in Louisiana, and a decline in price in Europe. The crop of Louisiana promises to be four times as large as last year. The maple sugar crop was unprecedentedly large, and the sugar situation of the world is limited by financial checks. No withstanding the speculators do not yield an inch, but carry all the sugar that comes to market.—Hartford Courant.

STRENGTH ABANDONED AND PICKED UP

Stemship City of New York, Capt. Howes, from Philadelphia, for Boston, with an assortment of cargo, struck on the Ground, at Nantuxet, June 2d, in a thick fog, crew left her, with five feet of water in her hold, at 7 P. M. Tuesday, in the quarter boats, and landed at Nantuxet on Wednesday afternoon. The steamer was afterwards fallen in with by schooner J. B. Davis, Capt. Wizen, and towed into West Harbor.

The value of this waif is probably in the vicinity of $100,000.

Col. A. Cummings, who conditionally accepted the Governorship of Utah, arrived in Washington on the 3d inst., from St. Louis and had a conference with the President. Col. C. has been superintending of Indian Affairs in Missouri, has long led a frontier life, and is a man of great energy and coolness. He was formerly connected with the army in Mexico.

The first of these is the fact that the value of the variable `total` is not updated in the `while` loop.
 The second is that the `while` loop is not properly terminated.
